“ Jim, Bill, Donna and family,

I only met your Mom once, but I spoke to her on the phone a few times and exchanged Christmas cards with her for the last several years. We had talked briefly about getting some of the extended Bloomquist side of the family together for a cookout or meeting for dinner, but she fell into poor health before we ever made a solid plan. I am so sorry to learn of her passing. She was very kind to me in our interactions, and I wish I had made more time to get to know her. May you find peace at this difficult time.
