“ I have many fond memories of my Uncle Jack and Aunt Margie , Johnny and Ray when I was growing up.I remember the many weekends at East Brady where I learned to ski. Holidays were always together with the Elliotts and Alberts. Jack could fix anything which lead him to open a garage in Butler and later he moved to Center Township. Jack had a great sense of humor. He always thought of his family first. I am sad to miss the funeral but I was glad I spoke with him a few months ago. We will miss you but we know you will join Aunt Margie, Johnny and Ray in heaven.
