“ Gary and Linda, I am so sorry for your loss. I used to babysit you when your parents were still alive and you lived on Red Dog Road. You were both quite young at the time. I lived at the corner of Red Dog and old Route 8. You may have known some of my younger siblings. Yes, I am a Ray. Your dad was a hard worker. I am glad you have children,, Gary. I heard you were smart as a whip. Linda, you were a tiny little girl and I never really heard anything about you. You took care of your Dad. That is wonderful. I helped take care of my mom up to the time of her death in January 2025.
