“ Mr. and Mrs. Sarver, please accept my condolences.

To bury a child seems to be one of the most unnatural things ever, usually your hope for children is that they live longer and are happier than you ever were. But time and unforeseen occurrence befall us all(Ecclesiastes 9:11) I know that God will sustain you through this difficult time if you turn to him in prayer, and give you the strength to endure, Psalm 55:22.

And never forget the promise Jesus made to resurrect all those in the memorial tomb, John 5:28,29. Until that time comes may the God of all comfort grant you peace.
