“ Dear Debbie sending you love and a prayer for comfort. Even when we know what's best for those we love in passing - there still is the loss that sadness follows. You are a very special friend and I am here to help in any way that you need. It is truly a blessing knowing that your Father sill lives in Heaven. Just think about all the loved ones he is gathered around! I believe as you shared with me.... You will be with him in a blink of the eye in Gods time!
