“ Gram, You were always ther foe me with your guidance and support. I truly enjoyed the visits we had and the talks. You always set me straight and told thing like they were with no hesitation you always treated like family. I am grateful for your honesty and encouragement. You were a very caring and loving Grandmother to my daughter all the time I spent away I never had to worry I knew she was alway in great hands with you there. I will surely miss you greatly. I am also very grateful and I thank God you were part of my life. Rest in peace Gram.
