

Karlyn Lovewell Arthur

January 11, 1925 - April 2, 2013

Karlyn Lovewell Arthur, 88, of Butler, passed away Tuesday, April 2, 2013.

She was born in Bradner, OH. She was a graduate of Dormont High School, the University of Pittsburgh and Slippery Rock University. She had taught at Penn Township in Butler County. Most recently, she resided at the Orchard and was under the expert and tender care of the staff there and the visiting nurses of VNA Hospice.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Don and Ada Lovewell of Pittsburgh; two sons, Donald and Alan; and a daughter, Jane Ann. She is survived by her son, Richard, daughter-in-law, Mary Lou; four grandsons; and her daughter-in-law, Carol.

Private family service and burial.

www.youngfuneralhomes.com.

Tribute Wall

TF

“ *Dick and Family,
Greetings from an old friend and deep sympathy on your mother's passing. She was clearly a special person whose life touched her family, her students, and friends in such a nice way. Know you're in my thoughts as you celebrate her life and mourn her passing. May good memories remain and sustain you all.*

Tom Ritchey & Family - April 05, 2013 at 05:54 PM