Lana Kay Adams Tidwell, age 60, of Saxonburg, formerly of West Sunbury, passed away Monday, June 17, 2013 at the Butler VNA Inpatient Hospice following a courageous battle with Alzheimer's. Lana's loving spirit will remain with all the people whose lives she touched, which were many.

Lana was born May 27, 1953 in Butler, PA. She was the daughter of the late Franklin Corbett and the late Virginia Sherwin Corbett. She was a member of the First United Methodist Church in Butler. She received her Bachelor's degree from the Philadelphia College of Textiles and Science. She retired from OPM as a federal investigator after thirty one years of service. In her spare time Lana enjoyed the art of dance, traveling and spending time with her family.

Lana is survived by three sisters, Rita(Dennis)Hillwig of Chambersburg, Diane(Thomas)Standish of Emlenton and Dawn(Richard)Helfrich of Karns

City, two brothers, James(Janet)Corbett of Grove City and Richard(Susan)Corbett of Bluffton, SC, fourteen nieces and nephews and twenty great nieces and great nephews.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Donald Neal Tidwell.

A memorial service will be held at 12 Noon Saturday, June 22, 2013 at the Fairview United Presbyterian Church, 109 Petrolia Street, Petrolia with the Rev. Dennis Barger of the Scrubgrass Stone Church officiating. A time of fellowship and dinner will follow.

Burial will be private.

The family suggests memorial donations be made to the Butler VNA Inpatient Hospice, 115 Technology Drive, Butler PA or the Alzheimer's Foundation, One Station Square, The Landmarks Building, Suite 500, Pittsburgh, PA 15218.

*Dear Diane and family, I just learned of Lana's passing. I am so sorry for the grief you and your family are going through. Please take some comfort in the fact that you were a wonderful sister and that she is finally at peace. We all know it is always hardest for those left behind. You and your family are in my prayers. God bless you all. Fondly,
Lorrie (Fennell) Foley.*
