

Leitha "Lee" Babette Krieger

April 26, 1915 - August 23, 2010

Leitha "Lee" Babette Krieger, 95, formerly of Butler, PA died Monday, August 23, 2010 at Passavant Retirement Center in Zelienople.

She was born April 26, 1915 in Pittsburgh, PA, the daughter of the late Carl Dott and Elizabeth (Homeyer) Dott.

Lee was an active volunteer for many organizations such as Trinity Lutheran Church, Women's Auxillary for the Center Twp.-Unionville Fire Department, and the Butler Area Food Service. Lee also worked for McDonald's Restaurant, Butler Area School District and Camp Lutherlyn.

She is survived by three daughters, Virginia Helterbran of Pittsburgh, Marylee Jones of Grove City and Kimberly Morris of Evans City and a step-daughter, June Benkoski of McKees Rocks. Other surviving family members are: one sister Elinore Hughes of Pittsburgh; 10 grandchildren, 21 great grandchildren, and 9 great-great grandchildren.

She is preceded in death by her husband Edward Krieger, a brother Harry Dott, and a sister Margaret Rimmel.

Friends will be received at Young Funeral Home, Ltd., 127 W. Jefferson St., Butler, on Thursday, August 26, 2010 from 2-4 & 6-8PM.

Services will be held at Trinity Lutheran Church, 120 Sunset Drive, Butler on Friday, August 27th at 11AM with her pastor, Rev. Tom Pierotti officiating.

Interment in the Greenlawn Burial Estates.

Tribute Wall

“ Dear Kim and family.....so very sorry to hear of your mother's passing. She is a very fond memory of mine from years in Prospect and the Butler Saddle Club. She added a sparkle to many events! My sincere sympathy. Jeannie##imported-begin##Jeannie Wagner Grace##imported-end##

August 23, 2010 at 12:00 AM