“ To the family members over the lost of our Beloved Pastor Leroy McAnallen. He was not only our Pastor for many years but was a Mentor to our Ministry. We would be at the funeral but we are ministering in California at this time as a tribute to what this man inspired for us to do for Gods Kingdom.
He was such a part of our Ministry for over 45 years. We are in the ministry today because of his leadership and prayers. Also my brother and his wife Tony & Marge Abram. Our family The Abram family are thankful to have known this man of God. Including my 97 year old Mother we send our love and prayers to all the remaining family members.
God Bless You All.##imported-begin##Drs. Frank & Barbara Abram##imported-end##

“ Pastor McAnallen was our Pastor and Mentor in our early ministry and life in Christ. Both he and his wife helped us over those early years to serve and grow in the Lord and Ministry. He indirectly had a part in our ministry in over 100 countries and is now seeing the multitudes that came to Christ through his Godly influence. He is now enjoying his eternal reward.##imported-begin##Rev and Mrs Tony Abram##imported-end##
