

Louis E. Bohrer

February 28, 2004

Louis E. Bohrer, 42, of Valencia, died of natural causes at his home on February 28, 2004. Lou was born on December 26, 1961, in Cumberland, Maryland and was a Veteran of the U. S. Navy.

Mr. Bohrer was employed by the County of Butler as a Maintenance Repair Technician since 1994.

He was a member of the National Rifle Association and an avid outdoorsman who loved hunting and fishing. He was also well known for his charitable work with the children and civic events.

Mr. Bohrer is preceded in death by his parents and his best friend Ricki. He is survived by a sister Colleen Bohrer of Florida.

A memorial service will be held at the Young Funeral Home, Ltd., 127 West Jefferson Street, P.O.Box 1522, on Friday, March 5, 2004 at 3:00 PM.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be dropped off at the Facilities & Operations Department located in the Gov't Center, which will fund the Ring of Honor paver that will be placed in his honor at Diamond Park, Butler, PA. Any additional contributions will be donated to the Fort Indiantown Gap National Cemetery Memorial Council, where Lou will be interred.

Information also is available at:

www.youngfuneralhomes.com

Tribute Wall

“ Louie, We will miss you so much. We remember all the good times we had together. God must of needed a special angel the day he took you. I hope you met Ricki on the other side of the rainbow.

*All our love,
Rick, Terri and Nick##imported-begin##Angiolieri
Family##imported-end##*

February 28, 2004 at 12:00 AM