

Margaret M. Reep

September 16, 1923 - May 16, 2013

God welcomed home another Sunday Child-Margaret M. Reep died at Meadow Lake Manor, Worthington, PA on May 16, 2013. She was born on a sunny Sunday morning, September 16, 1923 to Carrie McClure and Earl Roxbury in Fairview.

Margaret was a '41 graduate of FTKC, Karns City High School and Comptometer School in Pittsburgh. During WWII, she worked at Penn Drake Refg in Karns City, and retired from SSA, Boyers. Margaret belonged to Penna. Voters Hall of Fame, not missing to cast a vote for 64 years.

On October 17, 1942, Charles L. Reep and Margaret Roxbury were married at a United Methodist Church in Virginia Beach, before his unit deployed overseas, Quote from Margaret, "We never had a fight- how do you fight with someone who walks out of the back door and drives up the road". They were blessed with 70 years.

Chuck and Margaret took to heart Jesus last earthly command, Matthew 28, "Go Ye therefore and teach all Nations". They faithfully attended and supported Fairview United Methodist Church and Butler's First United Methodist Church. Two overseas missions and three local ministries.

Survivors are her husband Chuck (Jack) Reep, 2 sons, John (Norma) Reep of Butler, Curt (Patti) Reep of Kittaning; a daughter, Kathy (Mark) Ivory of MD; 4 grandchildren, 7 great grandchildren, a sister, Jane (Les) Shively of Butler, and a numerous nieces and nephews.

She was preceded in death by her parents, a brother, 3 sisters and one grandson, Joe.

Margaret was thankful for the gift of a long and good life and praised God, through Jesus Christ. Life can be eternal, embrace it!

I'll bet Joey will be happy to see Grandma.

Private services were held at First United Methodist Church, Butler.

Arrangements were made by Young Funeral Home, Ltd., 127 W. Jefferson St., Butler.

Interment will follow in the Bear Creek Cemetery, Petrolia, PA.

Contributions may be made to the First United Methodist Church 200 E. North St. Butler, PA 16001 or the Amedisys Hospice, 240 Pullman Square, Suite 255, Butler, PA, 16001.

Tribute Wall

BC

“ I can picture Aunt Margaret's smile and her laugh from my childhood. She seemed to always have that smile whenever I saw her. Safe passage, Aunt Margaret--rest in peace. My sincere sympathy to Uncle Jack and cousins Johnny, Curt & Kathy.

Becky Christie

---

Becky Christie - May 23, 2013 at 06:04 AM

KM

“ Our loss is Heavens gain. I said I love you Margaret and she said I love you more. She's the only one that ever said that to me. I'll always remember her with love.

Sincerely, Karen Myers

---

Karen Myers - May 22, 2013 at 06:05 PM