“Marg was the most amazing woman I have ever known. There was not a time we had together that we weren't laughing, joking and teasing each other. Even when a couple girls and I visited her in the spring at the Assisted living in McCandless, we all had a good time sharing our lives with her. We knew then that our good buddy was slowing down and nearing her journey home. I can speak for myself and say that she has made a huge mark and impression on my life. I only hope that I can be half the woman she lived to be. Since she had that big of an influence on me, I can only imagine how much of a imprint she has made on all of your family. She so loved all of you so much and even when her body was giving out; her will to keep being with all the family for all the travels, fun holidays, and wonderful beach and camp times helped her to make it for as long as physically and mentally able to. Her kindness, honesty, warm-heartedness, strength, toughness, vigor & resilience and most of all, her sense of humor are many of the special traits that made her so unique and special to me and others. I loved her competitive spirit in golf. When her physical body wouldn't let her play the game I asked her if she wanted to be an alternate and play when weather was good and she would have nothing of it! It was all or nothing for our gal, Marg! That is exactly how she lived her life, too! I loved that woman and will always have the best memories of one of the finest ladies I have ever met. I'm so sorry for the family's loss, but I am not sorry to have been privileged enough to have shared some of her life's memories and to proudly say I was a great friend and admirer of Marg Schoenfeld!. Your friend and golf buddy, Gayle McAnallen

(I am so sorry I can not make it to the funeral home to talk to all of you and rejoice in the celebration of her life as I have a prior commitment that I am not able to get out of. I really regret missing her service but please know that you are in my prayers and thoughts even if I can't be there.)
