“ We are so sorry for your loss. Even with a firm hope for the future, death is still accurately described as an enemy in the bible at 1 Corinthians 15:26. We can't help but feel the void when someone we love dies. The Bible holds out a hope for us that I have personally found to be a comfort. I especially love the scripture found at John 5:28,29 that give us the hope that we can personally see our dead loved ones again. It says, “.....the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus' voice and come out.”Jesus promises that millions now dead will live again on this earth, and have the prospect of living forever under peaceful conditions. It is my sincere hope that these thoughts bring a measure of peace to your minds and hearts, as they have to mine. Once again, please accept my heartfelt greetings and condolences.##imported-begin##jaycee##imported-end##
