“ Very sad to hear of the passing of one of my oldest friends. Mary Ann truly lived a life of service. Service to Veterans and staff at the VA and service through her community activities. However, her proudest accomplishment was her boys. My deepest sympathy to them and their families.

“ A smile that always lit up the room. Kind, gentle and a loving person that enjoyed helping others. My friend and my confidant for many years. We enjoyed many long talks over the years about our families, life, good times and challenging times. I will truly miss our in-depth conversations, your smile, your laugh and your dedication to all that you did. We weren't just co-workers, we were more like sisters for many years. Always so proud of her wonderful boys. Much love, hugs and strength to Howard, Carl, Michael and the entire family. God has truly received a beautiful Angel.
