

Max Joseph Pokorski

February 14, 1927 - August 15, 2025

Max Joseph Pokorski, 98, of Butler, passed away Friday, August 15, 2025 at Concordia at Cabot.

He was born February 14, 1927 in Pittsburgh, the son of the late Max and Pauline (Krause) Pokorski.

Max was a member of the Mahoning Lodge #243 of New Castle, New Castle Scottish Rite, Syria Temple, Butler Caravan #14 and Masonic Veterans of W. PA. He was, also, the 2004 Monarch of Islam Grotto and a member of Aut Mori Grotto of Youngstown.

Max had been a mechanical structural engineer, who retired from the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania as a maintenance supervisor. He was a WWII veteran of the US Army and a member of Post #249 V.F.W.

He was preceded in death by his parents and a brother.

Private interment in the National Cemetery of the Alleghenies, Bridgeville, PA.

Tribute Wall

“ Max also happily served as a volunteer counselor and local site coordinator with the AARP Foundation Tax-Aide program for 20 years. ”

Gary Rauschenberger - August 20, 2025 at 10:57 AM