“ To The Chaney Family, I was so very sorry to hear of your loss. I did not know Meghan personally but I know the pain of losing someone in death. What helped me is what is in the bible at Acts 24:15, this will be a joyous time for Meghan and others. Until this time draw close to God and he himself will sustain you. I read about the loss of your loved one “ Meghan ”. I know there is little that can be said at this time that will make the pain go away. I read a brochure on Hope for our loved ones that have died. It has comforting words from the Bible. The url address is

“ After viewing on line your daughters obituary, I wanted to offer my sympathy and condolences. Even though this is a sad time for the family, surely the God of tender mercy may remember Meghan and remember her during the resurrection. Acts 24:15 tells us that this will take place. May you find comfort knowing that one day you will see your dear love one again.##imported-begin##Evelyn Hall##imported-end##

“ I am so sorry to hear of Meghan's passing. I hadn't seen her in many years, but thought of her often. She was a good friend. The last time I saw Meghan (20 years ago) she loaned me some much needed money and told me to only return the favor to someone who was in need someday.

Please accept my sympathy and may god comfort you in this difficult time. She is at peace I am sure of it.
