“ Michael lived with me for 4 months and saved my life during an illness. That is who he was. Giving was his first profession and he did it with joy and that beautiful smile. He made me anything my heart desires from chicken and dumplings to white cake with buttercream frosting. But most of all, Michael Honey, you made me happy like you did for all who were lucky enough to know you. I will love you and miss you until you serve me at our Heavenly table together❤️

Dearest Kathy and Mike, The heavy load I feel is only a dribble in the bucket compared to your sadness. May God lighten your load as the days pass. He was such a force in life even as a little boy. Love to you, Edna Kerr
