“ This is a great loss both to me personally and the entire Spotlight 88 Flea Market, as he was our primary entertainer for the last 14 years. He also recently played Steeler polkas at my store in Zelig. Mickey is a musical genius we will never forget, and I will miss the long talks with him after his shows.##imported-begin##Whitey Boehm##imported-end##

“ The Patrick Family,
I'm so sorry for your loss. Uncle Mick will now be in a better place to watch over his family. You will have an angel in heaven to look down upon you. Always remember the good times that you have had to get you through the hard times. He will always be in your thoughts and most importantly in your hearts. RIP! Your family is here for all of you if anyone needs anything. Love,
