Brother

I thought of you today
But that is nothing new
I thought about you yesterday
And will tomorrow too.

I think of you in silence
And make no outward show.
For what it meant to lose you
Only those who love you know.
Remembering you is easy
I do it every day
Its just the heartache
of losing you
That will never go away.

“ Michael was a real trooper. He was in a nursing home for 13 years due to his condition, when his mom just couldn't lift him and give him the care he needed. She was there every other day to feed him and visit him. When I came to pa.to visit I'd walk in his room, get a big smile, a big hug and a thumbs up. I had a special bond with Michael. I used to bet football games all the time, but he got to pick the team he wanted first. Well he knew all the stats of all the sports so of course I was the loser most of the time. He got a real kick out of that. He was so smart, but his body just wasn't. He was so generous and thoughtful. His mom would take him out to Walmart and he would buy gifts for the aides that loved him. He is a peace now after he fought most of his life. He is now with his mom, brother, niece, and sister. Give them all hugs from all of us

“ Michael had such pretty eyes and a great smile along with such a good sense of humor. He was smart as a whip too! I know he will be missed. 💕💕 KC, Virginia

“ I have memories of Michael when I was a child playing army man in the backyard also of visiting him at the farm when he could still walk. As time went on, I would see him at my aunts house and at my cousins house. Then over list, I don't know how many years Michael was in a nursing home and when we came to Pennsylvania, we would see him. He always had his eye and I always tried to make him laugh, someday I'll see you again cousin I can't wait to put my arms around you and feel you hugging me back. Until then shine on in heaven with all of our family members
❤️❤️❤️

Michael was a real trooper. After being cared for most of his life by his mother and sister Michele, he had to be placed in a nursing facility as lived there for 13 years. He was very limited as to what he could do. He loved sports and knew all scores and everything about the players. He was so smart. His mind was great but his body wasn't. When we would come to visit we always got a big smile, thumbs up and a big hug. I will miss that. I used to bet him on the football games and yes most of the time I was a looser because he got to pick what team he wanted, and he knew all the stats. He waa as a a winner in scratch offs too. Michael and I had a special bond and I will truly miss him. He had a huge heart. His mom would take him to Walmart and he would pick gifts out for aides that cared for him. So now Michael ,you are with mom, Elaine, Mark and Nicky. Please hug them all for me. I loved you so much and remember your big heart and the love we shared. Love sissy

“ *A Caregiver's Love:
Sacrificial love is humbly given to Michael. You were a very good sister to him! While Michael was on this earth, he knew he was loved. Now he is receiving his reward in heaven and he is rejoicing! You will miss him for awhile but you will see each other again someday!*
