“ To Michael's family; My heart wishes you the same blessings of comfort and Christ's compassion as the Swigarts; while Michael's inner pain brought him to the point of blind action, I'm sure you knew him at some time to be fun and caring, not hurtful and angry. If only he knew the 'peace that passes understanding' that would have brought him peace in his heart. And so, during this tragedy, I pray for comfort from God for you as often as I think of the Swigarts. God wants you to come and know His love and care and to offer your heavy hearts to Him- He promises to exchange pain for joy- I know God keeps His promises, I have experienced them many times!
