“ Our deepest sympathies go out to the family. May God's mercies ease the pains that you all must be feeling. Know that she is whole again, and that the pains of this world are behind her. To her children, she may not be here for you to see and touch, but she will always be close by to you both. Blessing to all.##imported-begin##Kimberly Thompson & Andrew Fierst##imported-end##

“ Dear Randy, When I talked with you at the funeral dinner at the Methodist Church, I could tell that you were very happy and were enjoying life with your family. You mentioned that your wife had a lung transplant; I assume her death was related to her previous problems. I am so sorry for your terrible loss. You and your children will find comfort in each other and your memories. Take care. Sincerely, Karen Joy, 11th grade English##imported-begin##Karen Joy##imported-end##
