“ My condolences to Mildred's family. Midgey brightened every day that I came into work at Sam's. Helped start my day with a smile, and let me leave with a witty comment to help me not take the world so seriously on days I was down. I thought it an honor to ride with her up and down the employee elevator and have some quick-tongued chats. Sharp woman, with wisdom I'll hold for the rest of my life along with all the other things I've learned from Sam's.

“ My deepest sympathies to you during this time of sadness. Midge was my friend, I held her hand and said a prayer with her in the hospital. We are going to miss her smile and spunk, she always made you feel welcome coming or leaving Sam's club. Midge is resting with the angels and I am almost positive the God is going to make her one of his greeters in Heaven. God Bless you and comfort you in the loss of your mother.
