

Mitchel P. Kiser

May 31, 1990 - September 27, 2017

Mitchel P. Kiser, 27, of Butler, passed away Wednesday, September 27, 2017 at his residence.

He was born May 31, 1990 in Pittsburgh, the son of Shawn R. Kiser and Diane (Perri) Lukas.

Mitchel attended St. Paul's Catholic Church. He was an avid BMX rider, enjoyed the outdoors, working on cars, loved animals and was a lifelong Pittsburgh sports fan. He was known for always helping people and being creative enough to build anything. He was the life of the party, bright, smiling and goofy. Most of all he loved being a father to his son Kyson.

Surviving are his mother and stepfather, Diane and Ralph Lukas of Butler; his father and step-mother, Shawn R. and Lisa Kiser of Butler; a son, Kyson Day of Butler; sister, Rachel (Matthew Humphrey) Kiser of Indiana, PA; three step-sisters, Melanie Lukas of Pittsburgh, Melissa Lukas of St. Mary's and Charlotte Lynch of Butler; step-brother, Richard Lynch of Butler; grandmother, Patricia S. Ingold of Butler; aunts, uncles, several nieces, nephews and cousins; and his dog Cheech.

He was preceded in death by his grandparents, Harriet & Philip Perri, Donald Kiser and Marie Lukas.

A memorial service will be held at a later date.

Tribute Wall

CA

“ Mitch is someone who can never truly be replaced. He had a heart of gold and shared his light with all he came in contact with. May you now be at peace and find comfort in Gods loving arms. ”

Casey - September 30, 2017 at 11:12 AM

GS

“ Me an Mitch met in art class we always talked about fast cars an how someday we have them well brother I hope ur rocking that bad ass car u always wanted up there rest easy mitch ”

Garrett smith - September 30, 2017 at 10:09 AM