“ This is an old memory, but when I was still in elementary me and dad went to a zoo for a field trip I had tons of fun with him there, I had the biggest smile on my face and would point out all the animals we saw, I admit I’m still not over his death, but I know he’s watching over me and seeing the person I’m becoming.💙 Love you dad<3

I learned of Nick Noa after reading couple of messages he left in my son's FB page. He seemed to be a very caring and sensitive person. He was mourning the loss of two marines he was friends with, my son Lcpl Andrew J. Aviles and Cpl. Jesus Medellin both KIA in Iraq 4/7/2003. Unfortunately, I read the messages late and when I tried to get in touch with him, it was too late. I am sorry, I didn't have the chance to get to know him and talk to him. My condolence to his family and friends! RIP Marine

“ My deepest sympathy goes out to Nick's Family I've never had the pleasure of meeting Nick but I would like to say to him thank you for your service as I do to all military personal. Pam our children may leave our side to get married or to go and be with God but they never leave our Hearts. I'm very sorry for your loss.

“ Alana, Megan, Phoebe & especially Nick's man Kai, your daddy would never leave you by his choice, you have to know that. You were his life, He went anywhere and everywhere to be with you. I'm so glad, as I know he is, that he got to spend as much time with you as he did. I just want you to know he is always in your heart & watching you from heaven with love. I'm sure he'd love it, if you talk to him when you need to. He would be happy to help you from above to find peace & joy in your life. He, & your mom, want you to be happy. Smile when you think of him.....

“ Nick. . . . wow, what do I say, except that you & your babies are too young for this..... You were always there for anyone & everyone, now you'll have to be there as our gaurdian angel. . . a kind & gentle marine, you have all the qualifications necessary. Always up for the challenge & I'm proud to have you as a friend & angel : ) love & miss you, but I know I'll see you again in heaven, Judy

“ I was blessed as a teenager to being given the opportunity to have Nick become one of my "adopted" brothers through our shared years at the Cubs Hall Boxing program. Nick was unlike most of the other brothers I gained through the Cubs, because he never tried to hide his determination to do the right thing or to show his sweet side. I have not had the opportunity to meet up with Nick in person since he entered the Marine Corp, but my sibling affection for him remained throughout the years that had passed. My prayers are with Nick's wife and children during this heartbreaking time. The world has lost a wonderful guy and a true Marine, but Heaven gained a new angel.

“ I knew Nick most when he was a youngster and later a teen in our church. Even then he was brave and seemed full of hope. I was always delighted when we chanced to cross paths or share a post and I knew there was still warm affection between us. He has met the Savior, now, and knows much more than this old Sunday School teacher.

“ Nick lived in my home for awhile but my heart forever! He will always be part of our family! Have never known a more caring person and a proud Marine! I was so very blessed God placed you in my life! And more than anything else I am so proud of what a good father Nick became. Will never quit loving you. Gloria
