

Nora M. Rosdahl

December 13, 1920 - January 16, 2015

Nora M. Rosdahl, 94, of Forestville, PA, passed away Friday, January 16, 2015 at her residence.

Mrs. Rosdahl was born December 13, 1920 in Jefferson Twp, PA, eldest daughter of the late Michael McCulloch and Nora (Murphy) McCulloch. She was a WWII Army Medic, educator, freelance writer and nature lover who always fed and watered all the wild birds and stray cats in her neighborhood.

Surviving are her son, Eric A. Rosdahl of North Royalton, OH; 2 daughters, Mary Cooper of Chattanooga, TN and Norah Jacobson of Vancouver, WA. Private service and burial.

Tribute Wall

ER

“ I was thinking about Mrs. Rosdahl today remembering the life lessons she taught me. I learned so much from her about survival during the Depression and about Victory Gardens, about her family and her times spent in Freeport at the river...I could write pages. I'll never forget this dear, sweet lady.

---

Elizabeth Rodgers - November 24, 2021 at 09:47 AM

DK

I just came across a wee note from your mum, Nora. I finally figured out that she and my dad, Msgt. Keith R. Kelley were friends up at DEpartment of Defense (Phoenix, Az). My mum and dad spoke highly of her. Your mum and my folks were all in WW2. Sorry to hear about your mothers passing. My dad, Keith passed on in 2000. God Bless each of you. Dave Kelley

---

Dave Kelley - November 03, 2022 at 09:40 PM