

Norma J. Coccari

November 28, 1928 - August 3, 2015

Norma Jean Coccari, 86, of Butler, passed away peacefully on August 3, 2015 at her Butler residence.

She was born in Butler Township, the daughter of the late Richard E. and Laura E. (Gibson) Miller.

In her later years, the highlight of her life was remembering when she had attended Meridian Elementary. Norma had worked as a Supervisor for 20 years for the PA Department of Public Welfare.

Surviving are her two daughters, Rebecca Tree of Cranesville, PA and Anita Stricklin of Butler; 1 grandson; several nieces and nephews; and her close friend, Cherie Freeland of Butler.

Norma was preceded in death by her parents and 2 sisters.

Private services and burial.

Tribute Wall

AB

“ Dear Eli:

Norma was such a great lady. She did a great job when she volunteered at the library. I enjoyed her company very much. Sorry for your loss.

*Alice Baptiste
Circulation Supervisor
Butler Area PUblic Library and Vicki's mum*

Alice Baptiste - August 06, 2015 at 05:19 PM