Tribute Wall

“ You have my deepest sympathy.
I am glad I saw Uncle Paul the last visit to PA. I remember, as a youngster helping him build his home by laying down basement cement blocks. I learned a lot from him. I know he loved the "graham terrace hunting club", and had fun hunting birds to bear. I know he loved Millie very much, and installed the organ for her. All he would tell me about WWII was that he was in artillery, I think those were bad memories. He did lots of work on tracing the lineage of the Plaisteds, I hope it is carried on.
I have good memories of Uncle Paul.
Love to all
