

Quay Richard Kriebel

December 7, 1935 - October 10, 2010

Quay Richard Kriebel was born in Piney Township/Sligo, Clarion County, Dec. 7, 1935. He laid down his working tools Sunday.

He married Patricia Marlene Myers of Sligo on Nov. 26, 1954. They have resided in Butler since 1963.

He was a retired entrepreneur, owning rental properties, a dry cleaner and a laundromat. In his earlier years, he worked at Pullman Standard as head of quality control.

He was a 32nd degree Mason and a past master of Clarion Lodge 277. He was a member of the North Main Street Church of God, was active in the Keenagers class, and his heart and home were places where God lived.

He took an enormous delight in his wife, children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

In his pastime, he liked to hunt, camp, snowmobile and enjoyed hymn sings.

He is survived by his wife, Patricia Marlene Kriebel; his daughter, Mrs. Vicki Fenstermaker and her husband, Dan; a daughter-in-law, Barbara Kriebel; his grandchildren, Jason Daniel Fenstermaker, Ryan Quay Fenstermaker, Michele Lynn Kriebel and Rebekah Marlene Kriebel; and his great grandchildren, Jewelee and Lilee Hooks.

He was preceded in death by his parents, three brothers, one sister, and one son, Richard Quay Kriebel.

A life celebration for Quay Richard Kriebel, who died Sunday, Oct. 10, 2010, will be held Wednesday at the North Main Street Church of God at 2 p.m. In lieu of flowers, the family requests your prayers.

“ Pat
My life has taked me in many different directions where I have worked with many different kinds of men but Quay was one who was in a very special group. Even through we did not talk about it I could easly tell that he was a Born Again Christian The way he talked the way he conducted himself in many different situations was a sure give away of his interself.I worked with him almost 20 Years at Pullman And he was a joy to be around. I thank you for sharing him with me.##imported-begin##Ken. Minnear##imported-end##
