“ To Don and family we are so sorry for your loss. I met Raegan when she was hired on at Liberty Electronic she was so much fun to be around. She loved life and her family very much. She then bought all my mothers caked decorating stuff and was going to go into her own business. She was so crafty and talented in so many things. She will be miss by all who new her, and we are all better for knowing her love to all. Dave, Becky Dilley and family

“ Raegan , thanks to your time and effort finding this lost uncle , I now know my family. When I didn't have any idea of where to start looking . It's true the good people leave us to early by our standards. Most of us work for early retirement. With your golden heart you unselfishly and unknowingly worked towards early eternal peace. You have earned your wings many times over. You have accomplished in a very short time what many if us never will. You turned your golden heart into golden angel wings . I woke up in the truck stop this morning and as I walked to the back of my truck there sat a cute little grey baby Bunny. It didn't run and let me pet it one time before slowly wondering off into the field. Thank you and rest easy Angel.

“ Reagan was 15 when we first met. She took a summer job babysitting our daughters. She taught one to tie her shoes, took them on walks to get candy at the corner store, was kind and patient and we all loved her. She was at our wedding. I remember when she became a mom... she was so happy. She took care of her mom and I was amazed at her sweetness and the privilege she considered it to spend that time with her mom. What an amazing woman!

“ There is too much to say and too much to share Reagan is such an amazing soul... so caring, loving, full of life, funny and just so talented!!! I love you Reagan..... you are amazing. She took myself and my family like so many others into her family with loving open arms....she was there to share good times and there to pick us up in bad.... she is loved by so many....so always gave 110% and never ever asked for anything in return. She was my biggest cheerleader for some of my personal singing events....Her talents were many and she was queen of them all!! Her beautiful smile and big huge hugs will be missed ... her laughter and presence will not be matched. I love you Reagan....
