“ *Joyce, Julie, David and Family
Deepest Sympathy on the loss of Becky. We had lots of fun growing up in Meridian. Missed her at the 40th class reunion in July. She will be missed. May the memories of the good times help you through this difficult time.

“ Please Accept My Condolences.

The bible calls death an enemy(1Corinthians 15:25) and we can see why, because it causes us to be separated from those we love and can cause us great pain and sorrow. When Jesus was on earth he demonstrated that he has the power and desire to bring back to life those who die, (Luke 7:11-17, Luke 8:40-56) So, you can see your dear loved one again! Until that time comes, rely on the God of all comfort to get you through this difficult time.

Sincerely,

“ Fran, Julie, David, and Denny, I am so sorry about your lose. I cant tell you how shocked I was. Becky was such a nice person. I really liked her and enjoyed working with her in the kitchen years ago. My prayers are with you all. May God be with you, carry you on His wings and give you strength during such a time as this. How short your time was Denny with her. I am so glad you had that time. God Bless you all.##imported-begin##Gina Callen##imported-end##

“ Dear Henry Family,

I read about the loss of your loved one “ Rebecca ”. I know there is little that can be said at this time that will make the pain go away. I read a brochure on Hope for our loved ones that have died. It has comforting words from the Bible. The url address is

http://www.watchtower.org/e/we/article_00.htm

I hope that this brings you and your family some comfort. If I can be of any further help please feel free to write me.

Sincerely
