

Robert E. Huselton

September 27, 1936 - May 5, 2024

Robert E. Huselton, 87, of Penn Township, passed peacefully away on Sunday, May 5, 2024, at Embassy of Saxonburg.

He was born in Penn Township on September 27, 1936, the son of the late T. Victor and Marie (Winters) Huselton.

Following his graduation from Penn Township High School, he became a carpenter known for his meticulous skill and attention to detail. Later, he worked with Playtime Equipment erecting stadium bleachers.

Bob was a member of the Penn Glade Lions Club, Butler Victory Lodge, and Shriners' International. He was an avid hunter, but his favorite past time was playing card games with a group of cherished friends. In his later years, he spent much of his time enjoying the antics of the animals in his yard, and friends and family visitors often saw the remaining evidence of the lunches and dinners he shared with them.

Surviving are his sister, Jane Wilson of Sebastian, FL; his stepson, Robert (Jackie) Seeley of Phoenix, AZ; a stepdaughter, Deborah (David) Tomosovich of Butler; four grandchildren, Chad Tomosovich of Cranberry Township, Korri Schwartz of Butler, Amanda Seeley and Zach Seeley, both of Phoenix, AZ; 4 great grandchildren, Sam, Gabby & Cole Schwartz, Taytum Seeley and several much loved nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by his wife, Dolores Huselton, who passed away in 2022; his parents; a brother, Dean Huselton; and a sister, Shirley Campbell.

Private service and burial in South Cemetery, Butler.
