“ The first time I met Ron he was with my Uncle Ernie in East Butler. Then he was married to Irean which the covert girls were family and very close. We ran around together. When my husband, David Swartzlander was building our house, Ron came over with little Ronnie to help David with some things. Ron had us go over to his house and showed us the hard coat and plastering job he would help David with. What a beautiful job and a very good friend. It was a bonus that Irean and I were very close from East Butler to Fenelton. We had some very good times. with heart felt feeling sending Love to all the family and our deepest sympathy to looseing one good friend. I hope David greets his friend again. Love Lorraine and Bobby McDonald.
