“ Dear Klever Family,
I read about the loss of your loved one “ Ron ”. I know there is little that can be said at this time that will make the pain go away. I read a brochure on Hope for our loved ones that have died. It has comforting words from the Bible. The url address is

http://www.watchtower.org/e/we/article\_00.htm

I hope that this brings you and your family some comfort. If I can be of any further help please feel free to write me.

Sincerely

“ Ron, Sandy, Susie & Ronnie children & Grandchildren:
I remember playing with "Ronnie" (& Susie) as a child. All good times. Heaven has another angel looking after us. Giggs & Lynn will welcome him with open arms. The void you feel can only be filled with the fond memories & love you have for him. I'm sure he grew into a great man ... he was such a good kid ... I am so sorry for your loss. You have my deepest sympathy.##imported-begin##Stephanie Lukavich (Stevie)##imported-end##

“ My sympathy to your family. I have fond memories of Ron & Susie at your grandparents house 40 + years ago. Looking at the picture of Ron -he has the same eyes & smile as he did back then - so I can only imagine that he left a lifetime of great memories with his children and grandchildren - hold on to them.....##imported-begin##Jeanie Lukavich - LB##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathies to the Klever family, death is difficult no matter the circumstance but when one dies so young it feels as if they had so much life ahead of them. Please take note of the promise the bible makes at Isaiah 26:19 and John 5:28,29. Also Isaiah 33:24. You may not feel like reading them now but in the days to come they will bring you comfort.

Sincerely
