

Ruth Sarver

February 21, 1924 - January 31, 2022

Ruth M. Sarver, 97, of Rochester, PA, passed away Monday, January 31, 2022 at her residence.

She was born February 21, 1924 in Butler, PA, the daughter of the late Anthony Graham and Violet (Riding) Graham.

Ruth was an accomplished seamstress, she enjoyed years of traveling and camping with her husband. They both had a love of boating and fishing as well as playing slot machines. She along with her daughter enjoyed the Red Hats and their many adventures. She was blessed to be married for 65 years to the love of her life. She was our family's anchor and will be forever missed.

Surviving are her daughter, Charmiann (Frank) Kononchuk with whom she made her home; son, Thomas L. (Karen) Sarver Jr. of Michigan, grandchildren, Barbara (Frank) Clyde, Johnny (Vivian) Smith; great-grandchildren, Sam (Valerie) Clyde and Amy (Ryan) Minor, 5 great great grandchildren; 1 sister, Marilyn Tynan of Butler; a brother, Robert Graham of FL, numerous nieces and nephews, 1 step grandchild and 3 step great grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Thomas L. Sarver, who died April 25, 2010, a son, Timothy Lee Sarver, 3 sisters, 3 brothers and 1 step grandchild.

Private service and burial.

The family would like to extend gratitude to the Good Samaritan Hospice for their compassionate care.

Tribute Wall

JL

“ So sorry for your loss Charmiann and Marilyn. I remember you mom many times as we visited Aunt Violet's house.

Janet Riding Leiper - February 02, 2022 at 03:07 PM

DM

“ Debby Manny lit a candle in memory of Ruth Sarver

Debby Manny - January 31, 2022 at 04:28 PM

DM

“ Deepest heartfelt sympathy in the loss of Aunt Ruth. Always held a special place in my heart. Sending hugs of comfort today and for the days ahead.

Debby Manny - January 31, 2022 at 04:27 PM