“ Sarah, you were my best friend. I was the happiest when you would come over and sit and listen to music with me and we would watch TV together. You were the craziest (in the best way) woman that I ever met in my life. I never knew what you were going to say or do next. Your smile was the best and most beautiful smile in the world. It would light up the room and complete my day just to see it. You were truly the most gorgeous woman I've ever met in my life! I fell in love with you just being around you. There was nothing in this world I wouldn't do for you. If I could've given you all the stars in the sky I would've! I promised you I would give you and your daughter anything you wanted.

♡ "Why wait any longer for the world to begin, you can have your cake and eat it too... Why wait any longer for the one you love cause he's standing right in front of you" ♡

*I tried everything in my power that night to save you! I would die just so you could live. All I wanted was for you and your daughter to have a good life and to be happy. I know in my heart I will see you again and I can't wait for that moment to come!
Loving you always and forever my sweetheart,
Dave*

Sarah, I went shopping at your favorite store yesterday, looking for that perfect dress for you, my sweet princess. I tried to imagine I was just buying your Easter dress, to try and make this a lil' easier to endure! I matched with a perfect necklace and hair band I know you would love!! Bfut then it hit me, this will be the last dress I ever buy you..the last time I dress shop for my only daughter. And I cried realizing we will never get to shop for the perfect wedding gown together now!! The day I always dreamed of sharing with you!! Instead, a day I never dreamed of is here, buying a dress for your farewell funeral service. You have gone to Heaven far too soon! And I am really going to be homesick for you now!! I do not know how I will get thru missing you, cuz I miss you so badly already!! But I do know You are there with Jesus, and Aunt Sonya, Davd, Gramma Jane, Mary Beth, and so many others! and you are happy, and at perfect peace!! And for this I am so very thankful!! I will not say good bye, I will say see you later...and I will see you again, at home!! I am looking at memories of your pretty dresses!! The snow balls, and banquets, and how beautiful you looked!! My sweet princess, Mommy Loves You!! <3

“ Sweet Sarah...I remember her & I talking after church service at New Life one Sunday about her Grandma being ill, at that time. She was very concerned about her & I told her that I was keeping her Grandma in my prayers & she gave me her big & genuinely warm smile. She will certainly be missed by so many here on Earth!

“ I left PA when Sarah was 5. I had her in my Sunday School class and I can remember when she got up in front of the church and did a solo song with hand motions...I guided her , but she had no fear and did such a great job....She was such a sweet little girl then and now she is with Jesus resting in his arms.....May the peace of God be with you all....I will never forget that memory.....

“ Sarah was a tiny little girl when I left Saxonburg but I grieve along with her family. Lucy, you are like a daughter to me and we will be praying for you and your family every day. May you find comfort in knowing that she is with Jesus. He loves you and will hold you in his hand.
