“ I know I am late to post on this, but just wanted to share the joy that Scott gave to so many others. Scott wore his heart on his sleeve and just wanted to make everyone around him happy. He desired to be the center of attention and usually achieved it. What I respected most about Scott, was that he would make fun of himself just to make everyone else smile. That was the duty he gave himself each day. To make his friends and family smile. I know that he sure made me laugh quite often.

“ I’ve never seen someone get more joy from running a lawn mower!
He wanted to re-mow the already mowed grass!
