Steven W. Thomas "The Handyman"

Steven W. Thomas "The Handyman" of Butler, PA passed away surrounded by his loving sisters Cyndi and Lynn on Wednesday, September 30, 2015 after a brief battle with cancer.

Steve was born September 24, 1959, the son of Alice Jean and Robert N. Henry, who preceded him in death.

Steve graduated from Slippery Rock High School in 1979 and then attended Johnstown School of Trades. He worked for McDonald's in Butler for over 22 years.

Steve was well known and liked and was considered "The Handyman" by many, many people in the Butler community. Anyone who really knew Steve knew that he was a wise and gentle soul and that he was a hard worker, a good talker, he just loved to carry on a conversation, and he loved a good meal. Steve would do anything for anyone that asked and the majority of the time he did not ask for any compensation. He always said that he did the work because it just needed to be done.

Steve is survived by his loving sisters Lynn (Jody) Slaven of Polk, PA and Cyndi (Wayne) Lumley of Volant, PA, his brothers Alan (Diane) Thomas and Michael Thomas both from Salem, West Virginia. Steve is also survived by nephews Robert and Garry Rankin, Jason Thomas, nieces Mandy Rankin, Sarrah Thomas, Alicia Huntley, Sonya Hapeman and great nephews Austin Wagner and Karter Huntley. Steve is also survived by his special friends Tim and Laura, Eric, Martha, Susan, Melissa and Josh and many numerous other friends.

Friends will be received at Young Funeral Home, Ltd., 127 W. Jefferson St., Butler on Saturday, October 3, 2015 from 10AM until the time of the service at 12PM.

Special thanks to the VNA Hospice of Butler, especially to Susan Grove and Amy Bowser who showed such compassion and care for Steve during his short illness, to Pastor Eric and Pastor Tim from God's Country for the spiritual guidance that they gave to Steve; it was a great comfort to Steve.

In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made to help defray funeral costs to Young Funeral Home, Ltd., PO Box 1522, Butler, 16003 .
