“ *I am so sad to hear Thi had passed. We loved Thi very much. He watched over us as he lived upstairs from my mother and i. He was a great neighbor and friend. Thi was nice, kind hearted, gentle man all my life he was there for me when I would get scared or just needed someone to help my mom do tough chores that took a man to help with. Once I married and had children, he treated them the same. Funny and offering tasty treats. The kids new Thi had something good if Nanny didnt. We will miss him very much. May he rest in peace. Thanks for the pic Tim. I haven't seen Thi since Keystone Aluminum closed in 2000. Too many friends I met there have passed. He was a good guy.

PS

“ Thi had no known family so he treated children as his own . He loved to teach life lessons with much patience and a joyful thankfulness that he was included .
