“ I didn't get to know great-grandad very well in the short time I had known him. I was around him a little when I was a baby, but I finally got reconnected with him at Christmas and grandma Marlene's house. He bounded in and was so full of life, I couldn't believe he was about to be 95. He even remembered me from 16 years ago. I saw him that night, and then at the hospital. And then at the hospice. He was a very kind and caring man. He passed surrounded by his large, loving family. I love you and miss you, great-grandad, but I'll meet up with you again someday... And maybe we'll go on a hunting trip. Love you great-grandad!

“ So sorry to hear about Tom. He was amazing. Always remembering my boys names and asking how they were doing, even the last time I saw him with you, Larry. I'm sure it was a lot of yrs since he had seen them. Prayers and sympathy to all of his family.
