“ I love and MISS you SO MUCH DAD....Life is so hard without hearing your voice, your laugh and of course your loving arms...You were ALWAYS there when I needed you. You are my best friend and I'm lost without you. Until we see each other again, please watch over us, Caleb, Shelby and your little princess Katie Jo. They all miss you and don't really understand your absence. Please watch over us from heaven, and help me with these tough decisions I have to make soon.

“ i miss you so much my life has changed so much knowing you arent in it anymore. i know you are watching over me and you are better off up in heaven with the angels and no pain. i cant see me anywhere not thinking about you i think about when i was younger and how much you loved me i know you miss me too. aunt joe and everyone that knew you miss you dearly. this is not supposed to be sad but as i sit here typing i seem to be crying. none of the little kids get that you are gone they think you are "on vacation". katie jo realized on the way to the burial that you were gone. i think that they all get it by now. i know you arent the first one to pass or gonna be the last but i dearly and truly loved you i hope you know that. my life is now so much different in ways i cant even describe. i miss you and hopefully when i am gone you will be waiting in heaven right at the golden gates with god jesus and the angels. many of my loved ones are up there and they are all in a happier place. you have survived a very long time battling cancer and i know it was painful but just remember we were all here fighting with you for your life. seeing you in pain just wasnt right so i guess the angels couldnt take it any longer seeing you like that well i love and miss you sosososososososo much<\3
