

SSG Thomas A. Rhoads

November 10, 1959 - May 27, 2015

SSG Thomas A. Rhoads, 55, former Green Beret, Patriot Rider and Wounded Warrior supporter, died May 27, 2015. He served his country for many years, both as an active duty Army Special Forces team member, as well as a Department of Defense contractor, in many missions throughout the Middle East. His love for his country and his wish to help the oppressed around the world, as well as in his home town, was always a driving force.

He was a hero who was dearly loved.

Military services will be held at the National Cemetery of the Alleghenies on Tuesday, June 2, 2015 at 10:00AM.

“ I've just learned of Tom's passing and I'm truly in shock. Tom was a great friend and serialist would give you the shirt off his back. I've had great memories with Tom mountain bike racing, trail runs, hanging at the beach and countless comical times. Tom gave a 100% to his country. Not so sure he received the same. Peace brother
