“ Bro. Tom was a very honorable man. He was very respected in everything that he did. I remember many times staying with him and his family at their home when we went up to visit them. You would never hear a complaint come from him, and he would never give anyone a hard time. He was one that you could joke with and he would laugh it off and give it right back. Thankfully, he has made heaven his home and that is what we are all looking forward to. To his family, Sis. Cathy, Phil and Alan, I'm praying for you everyday. We know that this is a very hard time for you, but remember each one of the saints and God is standing right beside. Stay encouraged we will see him again some day.
Love and prayers,

“ I had the pleasure of attending elementary school and high school with Tom. He was always quick with a smile and fun to be around. Though I have not seen Tom since our graduation I was sad to hear of his death. I'm sure he will be missed by all that know and love him. Please accept my sincere sympathy.##imported-begin##Paula (Martin) Smeltz##imported-end##

“ *Beloved Brother,
It's unbearable to think that I will not see your smiling face and hear your voice again on this earth. I hope you knew how much I appreciated your not cutting yourself off from us. When I was so ill, you came to see me at the hospital and later at home. You were there for all of our important events. Although I miss the closeness that we shared throughout our childhood, I believe that you were happy in the choices that you made. I also believe with all my heart that you are with God now. You were a good husband, father and brother. I know that God has already shown you that no matter what religion that you practice, there is only one God. I am happy for you but I will always miss you. I don't know if you knew this, but my faith is probably every bit as strong as yours and that is what is getting me through this very difficult time. I hope that in some way, you can show your Church of God family that we are all sinners and that the good that is done for others does matter. Pray for me as I will for you.##imported-begin##Ann##imported-end##*

“ *Tom's loss was a terrible loss to all of us who loved him. I share Ann's sorrow and whole-heartedly agree...as siblings, we shared so much, good and bad, and where Tom was concerned, mostly mischievous. My greatest comfort has come from hearing his laughter in my mind...a true gift from God that will always be my fondest memory of my older brother. It is my privilege to have come from a family so filled with love that his loss has left such a hole in the lives of his sisters and brother.
I too believe you are in Heaven, Tom...God knows your true story and I'm sure He was waiting patiently for you...I hope for all of us, one day. In the mean time..say "hi" to Mom and Dad for us...I'm sure they're thrilled to have you there. Keep the faith, baby...whatever that means.##imported-begin##Liz##imported-end##*

“ Dear Kathy,

*Our deepest heartfelt sympathy go out to you and your family. Tom was a wonderful man and will be greatly missed. I never forget all the time when I ran out of propane he would be right there and would also come into our home to relite the water tank and stove as I didn't know how or couldn't relight them. He always went the extra mile. There where also time when he did that that he realized we needed something new on our equipment and would fix it or/and repair it. His smiling face will be greatly missed. Take care,

“ Hi Dad,

I just want you to know how much I miss you. It is hard to realize that you will never share in the rest of our lives here on Earth. The wedding was beautiful and so much fun; I know that you would have enjoyed it! We thought of you often throughtout the day... You were a wonderful dad to me even though Alan and I weren't married yet. Thank you for raising such a wonderful man to be my husband. You couldn't have done better. I see so much of you in him; just the way he takes care of me and works so hard, and of course his sense of humor! I love you and can hardly wait for the day we see you again...###imported-begin##Rachel###imported-end##
