“ I'm a 7th grader at Talawanda Middle School in Oxford, Ohio. Tim's friend Ben from college came to speak to us as a speaker. He shared a lot of his life stories including the death of Tim and his father. He told us how he has found ways to get through those parts of his life. I feel bad for Tim and I hope he rests in peace.

“ Denise and Robert you're in my prayers. Tim was a true friend. He embodied the expression "live everyday as if it were your last"; he did more in his short 21 years on this earth than many do in a lifetime. That is why he was able to touch so many lives; and that is why he will be missed so very much by so many people. Although I know this pain will never leave you, I know that the joy he brought into the world will never leave either. He left this world a better place than when he entered it – not many can say that. He shaped each of his friends into the men and women that they are today, and so he truly will live on through us. I hope that with time you may take solace in the fact that if Tim had known he had a tragically short 21 years, I don't think he would change a single thing about how he lived his life. He was a great man, and I can't wait to see him again some day.##imported-begin##Steve Goetz##imported-end##

“ McNerney Family,

I graduated with Tim. We ran track together through part of high school. I just want you to know that there wasn't a day where I came in contact with him that I didn't smile or laugh a little bit. He was upbeat and good hearted and being faster than me, he gave me a reason to compete. My thoughts and prayers are with you and may you take joy in knowing he could make me smile.##imported-begin##Steve Bandi##imported-end##
