“ to william and sherry my heart breaks for you both. knowing what you have gone through recently myself. there are really no words to express what you are feeling, only someone who has gone through it. know this, the babies are in heaven with our lord Jesus and he is holding them in his arms. i can only wish that our Lord will give you peace and comfort and you are in my prayers and thinking of you both. God bless you both.##imported-begin##beverlycannon##imported-end##
