

Vilma J. Tomosovich

February 7, 1929 - December 14, 2024

Vilma J. Tomosovich, 95, of Renfrew, passed away peacefully on December 14, at her home surrounded by loved ones.

She was born in Butler on February 7, 1929, the daughter of the late Emil and Ida (Nini) Balde.

After her graduation from Butler High School, she was employed by the Egg Auction until her marriage in 1949 to Ivan (Hermie) Tomosovich. She was later employed by Nationwide Insurance and retired in 1979.

Vilma loved to travel and enjoyed moving from home to home just for the pleasure of decorating a new place. Friends and family will remember her listening for hours to much loved music of her youth as she reminisced about her days of Saturday night dances and her dream of dancing once more.

Surviving are her daughter, Sandra (Bruce) Wasson of San Diego; her son, David (Deb) Tomosovich of Butler; her grandchildren, Chad (Kaitlin) Tomosovich and Korri (Gabe) Schwartz; and great grandchildren, Sam, Gabby and Cole Schwartz and Harper Malaspina. She is also survived by a group of incredibly loving women who cared for her in her home throughout her later years. A special loving message to our mom, grandma, and great grandma, We will see you at the Lake House.

She was preceded in death by her parents; her husband; her companion, John Laurence; and her brother, Richard Balde.

A private service and burial arranged by the Young Funeral Home, Butler.

“ I met your mother many years ago when I took care of your father. They lived on Mercer road then moved over behind the clearview mall. I always enjoyed talking with her. She was such a nice person.
