

W. Kenneth Morey Jr.

March 17, 1951 - September 20, 2014

W. Kenneth (Ken) Morey, Jr., 63, of Cochranon, PA, formerly of Butler, passed away Saturday, September 20, 2014 after a brief illness.

Ken was the owner and corporate officer of Just Hangin' Around Tree Service Inc.

He was the son of Etoile (Deihl) and the late, Walter K. Morey.

In addition to his mother he is survived by his wife, Cindy Kelly Morey, his daughters Kelly (Mike) Levere of Harmony and Johanna (Casey) McBride of Grove City, his grandchildren, Wyatt and Piper Levere; his sisters Patricia (Dave) Kovach and Marcia (Bob) Luchkiw; numerous nieces and nephews and several great nieces and great nephews.

Because of Ken's love of life and laughter, a celebration of life will be held at a future date.

Contributions may be made in Ken's name to the charity of your choice.

“ To Cindy, and the entire Morey family. I was sorry to read the passing of your husband, I am happy the two of you met and had so many good years together and to Etoile, Patty & Marcia may the memories of Ken be with you all, during this sad time. He is at peace now with the lord. God bless all of you. Cindy

You where known for taking life with a good sense of humor, love for your Family and Friends, you lived a great life. Your love of life continues in the hearts and minds of your loved ones. We where sadden to hear of your passing. Know that your family will be well taken care of by the Family and Friends you loved so well, until you get to see them again at the Gates of Heaven where you will be awaiting their arrival.
