“ I knew Sir Heggey from his Navy years. Some of his navy friends are just now finding out about your loss, a year later. We crossed paths in calif., he always made me laugh, always had a kind word to say, and he served his country well during the cold war. God bless you Charlene and your family.##imported-begin##James Ledbetter##imported-end##

“ We haven't seen Wade since his wedding day, but his dad ,(Uncle Chesty) was one of our favorites. I remember loving Aunt Helen's Christmas cookies 'cause she always used special decorations! We played together quite often as children, though Wade was closer to my older brothers. My parents (Mary & Pat Cole) made sure we spent time with Wade and his family. Please accept our sincere condolences felt when hearing this sad news. Sincerely yours - Sue & Dave###imported-begin###Dave & Sue (Cole) Zimmerman###imported-end##
