

Walter S. Moczulski

December 29, 2007

Walter S. Moczulski, 81, of Renfrew, PA, died at 12:15AM on Saturday, December 29, 2007 at Butler Memorial Hospital.

He was born Thursday, January 14, 1926 in Lawrenceville, PA, the son of the late Frank Moczulski and the late Stella (Idzkowski)Moczulski.

He was a member of St. Fidelis Catholic Church in Lyndora. He was an avid car enthusiast, loved gardening, and repairing things. His family had taken care of him at his home for many years. He retired from the Punch Dept. at Pullman Standard and had worked in the Shell Shop during the war.

Surviving are a daughter, Anne Marie Kriess and her husband Robb Kriess of Butler, PA; and 2 granddaughters, Angela and Jennifer Kriess.

He was preceded in death by his wife, Helen Smaretsky Moczulski, whom he married July 26, 1958 and who died September 25, 2002, a brother, Frank Moczulski and 4 sisters, Connie Emminger, Ann Davidson, Helen Dulya and Jean Czyzyk.

Friends will be received from 6-9 PM on Tuesday, January 1, 2008 with a prayer service held at 8 PM with Father Steve Neff officiating at the Young Funeral Home, Ltd., Butler, PA.

Private burial in the Calvary Cemetery.

Tribute Wall

“ MY SYMPATHY TO YOU AND YOURS. I assure you, that when you see your dad again...he will have a new body. We can rely on the promises of God, in Christ Jesus our Lord.##imported-begin##Cousin Fran##imported-end##

December 29, 2007 at 12:00 AM

“ Anne, Robb, Angela & Jennifer,
Our thoughts and prayers go out to you during this time of sorrow. Remember that Walt is now in a better place. Call if you need anything.##imported-begin##David##imported-end##

December 29, 2007 at 12:00 AM