“ We are SOOOO sorry to hear about Wendy's unexpected passing. She will always be the pretty, smiling little girl whom we watched grow up and more recently the beautiful bride in our memories. She will always live in your hearts and in ours. God bless Wendy, and God bless all who have loved her and bear this tragic loss with great sadness. “ Sorry about the lose Martha, Greg, Rich, Larry and family and sorry that I cannot make it to Wendy's funeral. I've enjoyed the times spent with her at get-togethers and it seems just like yesterday we celebrated her 21st birthday at 356. I'll miss her and may she have a peaceful afterlife. The missing part never goes away from what I learned so she wouldn't be forgotten.

Take Care All,
